Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that one Sanjanna who was the arrack Vend farmer of the yedatore Taluk for the year 1898-99 complains that the sales in the marginally noted jâtra shops which were included in his Vend area were put a stop to in consequence of the prohibition of Jatras during the year on account of Plague; and that he has consequently sustained loss amounting to Rs 122-14-8, and prays that the same may be remitted.

1. Chunchankatte.
2. Kapadi.

2. The Jatras in question were as

as a matter of fact prohibited during the year but nevertheless the contractor paid his rental in full for fear of attachment and sale of his property. It seems therefore reasonable to show him some concession.

3. I would accordingly recommend a remission of Rs 120-0-10, the average profit he could have made had the Jatras not been prohibited. A refund bill for Rs 120-0-10 is herewith submitted.

4. The consumption of arrack in the said Jatra shops for the last 3 years is shewn in the margin.

5. The vernacular papers bearing on the subject are herewith submitted.

I have &c.
